First Reading, read by Christine Cowie

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.' In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.' For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Psalm 147: 1-7

How good it is to make music for our God, how joyful to honour him with praise. The Lord builds up Jerusalem and gathers together the out-casts of Israel. He heals the broken hearted and binds up all their wounds.

Response: Sing praise to the Lord, O Jerusalem.

He counts the number of the stars and calls them all by their names. Great is our Lord and mighty in power; and his wisdom is beyond all telling. Response

The Lord lifts up the poor, but casts down the wicked to the ground.

Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving; and make music to our God upon the lyre;

Response

Gospel John 6.51-58

Jesus said to the Jews: 'I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'

The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' So Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever.

In September of this year, it would have been David's 80th Birthday. To remember and commemorate this event and to help raise money for Cancer Research, his daughter Nicky and grandson William, in the typical spirit of DRAP, are embarking on three challenges over the next few months. They will be undertaking a 100 mile bike ride in 8.5 hours, a 70 mile night bike ride and a 146 mile walk. If you would like to support Nicky and William in remembering David and by donating to Cancer Research please click on the link below or see Liz. <https://tinyurl.com/yca6c6to>
